

Please do not alter the Wisconsin do-not-call list. Telemarketing calls are annoying. With a young family we simply do not have the energy or time to ward off these relentless calls. Telemarketers do not seem to ever take no for an answer and keep trying even after you say no thank you.

Please continue to protect the rights of individual citizens, not just the big businesses.

Thank you.